

American Council on Immersion Education

The American Council on Immersion Education (ACIE) is an organizational network for individuals who are interested in immersion education (teachers, administrators, teacher educators, researchers, parents). Conceived by immersion teachers in Minnesota and funded in part by the National Language Resource Center in the Center for Advanced Research on Language Acquisition (CARLA) at the University of Minnesota, ACIE aims to facilitate communication among immersion teachers and immersion education advocates.

As immersion education has grown, ACIE has also been working to create liaisons with schools and educators throughout the U.S. in order to promote best instructional practices, provide professional development opportunities, and establish an internet presence. We hope that you will help us to expand the network by sending in your membership application today.

Two types of membership to ACIE are available - individual and institutional. Individual memberships cost $25.00 for one year. Individual members receive

- ♦ A discount coupon for $25 off any of the 2012 CARLA summer immersion institutes held at the University of Minnesota (for information, visit www.carla.umn.edu/institutes) NOTE: Coupon does not guarantee a seat. Register early!
