Your teacher asks you to make a help make a display of the seasons for students in elementary school who are beginning to study ______. Look at the chart of pictures that belong to the four seasons and write 3 sentences you want the younger students to know about the seasons. Be sure to watch your use of vocabulary and grammar so the younger students will see correct language.

It is _______________________

It is _______________________

It is _______________________

It is _______________________

It is _______________________

It is _______________________
Rating: use generic rubric for novice writing or a checklist for vocabulary use, number of sentences and accurate spelling.