Your beginning language class, is writing an e-mail to key-pals who are beginning English learners. Since this is your first e-mail, you want to make a good impression. Your teacher has given you an e-card that you can complete. You are going to write about the weather.

Think about the weather and things related to weather and fill the blanks in the e-card.

Dear Laurance,

My name ___ _____________ and I am your e-pal. I am from _____________ and I want to tell you about the weather in __________________________. School has started and today, it is _________. I am wearing ___________. When school starts, it is often _________ and ______________.

Soon it will be ____________. Then it will be _______________. In winter, it is ___________ and ________________. In summer, it is _____________ and __________. I like the weather in ________________ best.

Tell me about your weather.

Your friend,

________________________________

Rating: 1. Logical responses for the blanks.