

Rubric for scoring oral presentation of surrealistic work

Scoring scale	Content of presentation	Language	Presentational Skills
3	*characteristics of surrealism found in the artwork are very well explained and illustrated	*student effectively incorporates vocabulary and language that are relevant to lesson *student exhibits some grammatical accuracy	*presentation illustrates that student has practiced *student speaks clearly and and uses a loud enough voice for everyone to hear *student is easy to understand
2	*characteristics of surrealism found in the artwork are somewhat well explained and illustrated	*student somewhat incorporates the vocabulary and language structures that are relevant to the lesson *grammatical structures are not consistently accurate, but errors do not impede comprehension	*presentation illustrates that student is relatively prepared * student speaks somewhat clearly *may be difficult for some students to hear and or understand presentation
1	*characteristics of surrealism found in the artwork are not very well explained and/or illustrated	*student incorporates few vocabulary and language structures that are relevant to the lesson *accuracy of grammatical structures is missing and errors make it difficult to comprehend	*presentation illustrates that student requires more practice *student does not speak very clearly *other students have difficulty hearing and understanding the presentation
Point totals
Total Score			